

Open For Interpretation

Michelle Carnes, ASID, generates a lot of excitement in this dramatic, contemporary Great Room that continues through retractable doors to the patio. An accent wall faced with 24 x 24-inch copper slate is a highlight of the Great Room and kitchen. Colors of purple, red, orange and gold surround the space and are used on three-dimensional wall pop outs. Copper colored mica wallpaper wraps around a curved wall, while a wavy dark-gray sculptured panel rests in the dining niche. Inside and outside, bars with pop-up televisions keep viewing and entertaining friends and family as a key priority. ▶
